

	MONDAY, FEB 23	TUESDAY, FEB 24			WEDNESDAY, FEB 25	THURSDAY, FEB 26	FRIDAY, FEB 27
Time	Single Track	Empirical Track	Philosophical Track	Time	Single Track	Single Track	Single Track
9:00 - 10:30	10:00 - 10:30 Check-in 10:30 - 11:00 Welcome	Patrick Haggard -Neuroscience, voluntary agency and the law: Freezing in sexual assault cases-	Thomas Schmidt -Moral Objectivity-	09:00 - 10:30	Réné Bernard -Designing Research We Can Trust: Critical Thinking & Good Scientific Practice- Part I	Group Work I -Preparation-	Marten Kaas -Trustworthy AI-
	COFFEE BREAK				COFFEE BREAK
11:00 - 12:30	Thomas Schmidt -Ethics: Mapping the Field-	Martin Haase -Data Protection & Data Security: A lawyer's view on personal clinical information-	Thomas Schmidt -Ethics of Neuroscience/ Neuroscience of Ethics-	11:00 - 12:30	Réné Bernard -Designing Research We Can Trust: Critical Thinking & Good Scientific Practice- Part II	Group Work II -Presentation-	Klaus Günther -Neurocriminology and the Mindset of Criminal Law-
	LUNCH BREAK				LUNCH BREAK
13:30 - 15:00	Thomas Schmidt -Core Issues in Normative Ethics-	Christa Thöne-Rheineker -Ethical Justification of Animal Experiments in Germany-	Thomas Schmidt -Moral Principles-	13:30 - 15:00	Anne Beck -Ethical Issues of Neuroenhancement-	Patricia Krause -Deep Brain Stimulation and Ethics-	John-Dylan Haynes -Human vs Machine Intelligence-
	COFFEE BREAK				COFFEE BREAK
15:30 - 17:00	Thomas Schmidt -Moral Responsibility-	Michael Gaebler -Ethics Committee: Practical Work of a Local Ethics Committee-	Thomas Schmidt -Moral Obligation-	15:30 - 17:00	Vince Madai -AI Ethics in Clinical Neuroscience: From Principles to Practice-	John-Dylan Haynes -Brain Reading-	Closing & Feedback
17:30 - 19:00	Social from 17:30 Venue: Café Flora Haus 19, Philippstraße 13, 10115 Berlin			17:30 - 19:00	KEYNOTE: Joanna Bryson -How consciousness relates to morality: When artificial consciousness is unimportant-
					Speaker's dinner (speakers only) Venue: tba		